FINANCIAL MATTERS, at least out of the more every day routine, are so near no matters at all, that it almost looks as if it did not matter whether they were mentioned or not. The New York Bulletin, of Saturday, had the following: On 'spots' matters remain quite firm. and another addition has been made to quotations of le per pound. Holders continue to display a very confident tone, and the entire stock may be said to be out of reach except at extreme figures, while on some of the choice parcels the moment buyers appear interested the cost is at once advanced. The demand, however, is less active and not quite so encouraging. Shippers bought stock, were much more cautious and inclined to confine themselves as clessly as possible to actual wants. The increased cost undoubtedly tends to bring the demand into smaller compass. For future delivery there was a fair business doing, but the market lost strength early and continued on the downward turn all days The less favorable accounts from Liverpool, both as to spots and arrivale, the general encouraging weather, and the favorable crops reports from two or three southern exchanges, and also the lessened demand in our own 'spot' market, all contributed to orm a basis for weakness. Many of the recent 'longs' were looking out for profits and covering, and there was also said to be a few 'short' sales made. Hints of some sort of 'bear' combination to affect August deliveries was also hinted at. If the rotten logs and nasty mud lay-ing around Glenn's wharfboat don't breed an epidemic, then Memphis is safe this season. The Hopefield sandbar is coming to the surface, and already exhibits evidences of a considerable culargement during the last high water. The Quickstep left about nine o'clock last night, having been delayed by ad ditional engagements. She had a first-class trip of both freight and people for the lower bends. Those who attempt to ridicule the latest styles of pin-back skirts worn by the ladies, says an old unmarried marine, have no taste nor admiration for the beauties of nature. Captain John F. Noel, formerly of the John B. Maude, in the Memphis and New Orleans trade, has abandoned marine pursuits, and has engaged in merchandising in St. Louis. Captain Jimmy Thompson, who yes-terday received his sheepskin of authority, went out in command of the Quickstep, in place of Captain Stack Lee, who stops off at Helens for a week or two. Captain J. Heavy fog on the river yesterday morning delayed steamers, in conse-quence of which the Belle Memphis did ot arrive on time by several hours. She had a good trip of freight and people out yesterday evening. Helena World, 27th: "The St. Francis river is falling at a very rapid rate, and an old settler remarked to us yesterday that if it fell as rapidly all the year as is the case now, the bottom would be sure to come out. Quite likely.'

The Charles Morgan, which passed up about nine o'clock Sunday morning, put off here a lot of miscellaneous freights and added another lot and a goodly number of passengers, among them Colonel M. D. L. Stewart and family. The Illinois takes her place in the Memphis and Vicksburg trade next Friday. She has been thoroughly done up in a satin rag," and looks as handsome as a speckled canary, her accommodations in every respect equal to the finest steamer afloat. Messrs. John Burke and Lew Murray came down on the Belle Memphis yesterday, and will assist Jimmy Thompson in the office of the Phil Allin when that boat comes out next Monday. These two young men were formerly of the Anchor line, and are popular steamboatmer.

An inebriate "decker" attempted to milk a mule on one of our local packets during a recent trip down the river. "Chips" says it took about five hundred feet of flooring and framing timber to patch the hole in the upper deck that poor fellow went through, and the mule didn't wink but one ear either. It is said that the mayor can do nothing about that mud on the levee without authority from the council. It stands to reason that the mayor can act in a case of emergency without the action of the council; and it also stands to reason that the removal of any nuisance or decaying matter likely to breed disease and pestilence is a case of emergency. The Phil Allin, after having undergone a thorough overhauling, refitting and refurnishing, which has made her look as gay as when she made her first trip from Memphis, will resume her regular trips in the Lee line of the Memphis and Friars Point trade next Monday, the Quickstep running alternate days, making a daily line between tere and Helena and Friars Point. We have it in black and white from Mr. L. N. Kelsoe, her chief clerk, that the James D. Parker left Cincinnati last Saturday evening, consequently she will arrive here Wednesday night, and will receive for her return Friday evening, positively. She has a good trip for Memphis, and deserves a good one back. Captain Wise has won for himseif a fame, as a mariner, which makes us claim him and his boat as a Memphis institution.

The remains of a fisherman named Gilbert, who was drowned eight months ago at Randolph, were recovered at that point Sunday. There were in his pockets one hundred and fifty-seven dollars in greenbacks, which were still in a good state of preservation. The magis-trate of Randolph held an inquest over the body. Mr. Gilbert's wife died several months since, but he has a son livng, who can get the money and effects of the deceased by applying to the mag-istrate at Randolph, Tennessee.

Cincinnati *Enquirer*, 28th: "Captain R. T. Cummings, the former owner and commander, purchased the steamer Ella at marshal's sale, at Jacksonport, Arkansas, on the twenty-fifth instant, for three thousand seven hundred and fiftyfive dollars. The sale has yet to be confirmed by the court, and we understand that the marshal had been instructed not to sell for less than four thousand five hundred dollars.
